MAGNIFICENT MEN—Young though they may be, this trio had the charm to catch the judges' eyes in Monday night's judging. Kevin Seall, center, 5-year-old son of Mrs. Ruth Seall earned the coveted crown. Sharing the spotlight are Randy Kauffeld, 4, left, of Route 2, Lockbourne, first attendant and Brett Peters, 5, of Route 2, Ashville, second attendant.

ROYAL LADIES—Beauties all are these winners chosen to reign over the 44th annual Fourth of July Festival at Ashville. Queen Sandie Holland, at center, will share the fun of her reign with her first attendant Kimberly Franz, 5, of Ashville and second attendant, right, Page Welch, 6, of Circleville. The 1974 Little Miss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holland, Route 1, Amanda.

Ashville Crowns'73 Little Mister, Miss

Sandie Holland and Kevin Seall were chosen Little Mister and Miss July 4th at the Ashville festival Monday night.

Little Miss Sandie was selected as fairest of the fair from a field of 106 young girls who competed for the title. She is the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holland, Route 1, Amanda.

The boys' title and crown were presented to the son of Mrs. Ruth Seall, 561 Springhollow Road. The five-year-old was chosen over 60 other young entrants.

Runners-up in the competition for mini queen were Kimberly Franz, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marty Franz, Route 1, Ashville, and Page Welch, age 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Welch, Route 4, Circleville.

Sandy Kauffeld was the first attendant to the new king. He is the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kauffeld, Route 2, Lockbourne. The second runner-up was a Route 2, Ashville youth and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peters—five-year-old Brett Peters.

Judges were Capt. and Mrs. John R. Wardle from Lockbourne Air Base, Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler, art teachers in the Logan Elm School District and Linda Litteral, a dental technician.

Tonight the spotlight will turn on the teenage competitors seeking the title of Miss 4th of July 1973.

The parade, which begins at 7 p.m., will feature the 33 contest entrants, plus the new Little Miss and Mister and their courts.

Mrs. Georgia Dore, winner of the 1973 Outstanding Woman of Ashville award, will be riding in the parade.

During the queen judging tonight, the Ashville Community Club will name three outstanding senior citizens and honor them for their service to the community.

An added attraction on the judging platform will be a number of past July 4th queens, from 1950 when the contest was initiated, to 1972's retiring titleholder, Miss Rita Lear.

A display in the Toole Electric Shop took top honors in the window decorating contest. The window featured manikins dressed as the wounded fife player, drummer boy and flag bearer depicted in the painting, "The Spirit of '76."

"Hats Off To Ben Franklin" was the theme of the window entered by Featheringham Furniture Shop, displaying a figure of Franklin amid antique furniture. Streamers from his hands lead to items in use today which his inventions made possible. This entry was presented the second prize.

In third place in the competition was the Village Flower Shop. A bright red outline of the United States, with each state marked by a miniature U.S. flag, backed a large floral centerpiece accented by a top hat.

Judges Mrs. E. R. Bennett and Mrs. Edwin Bach Jr. gave honorable mention awards to windows entered by the Ashville Coffee Shop and an Ashville Girl Scout Troop. The latter is on display in Boyd's Leather Goods Shop.

Nations Meet In Europe

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — The 35-nation Conference on European Security and Cooperation, the largest postwar effort to ease tensions on the continent, opened today in Finlandia Hall with optimistic expressions from all sides.

"Our cooperation is not directed against any state or continent and should constitute an important contribution to world peace and security," said Ahti Karjalainen, the Finnish foreign minister, as the foreign ministers and other representatives of the United States, Canada and all the European nations except Albania took their seats.

Karjalainen, speaking for the neutral host country, related the conference to other efforts toward East-West detente and said the overall objective is "stability and enduring peace."

Five of the leading Western ministers—U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers, Sir Alec Douglas-Home of Britain, Walter Scheel of West Germany, Italy's Giuseppe Medici and Canada's Mitchell Sharp—arrived together shortly before the conference opened. They came from a party in London Monday celebrating Sir Alec's 70th birthday.

Rogers said the meeting was "one of the most important international conferences since World War II." He said he believed it would turn out "to be of real significance."

In Moscow, the Soviet Defense Ministry newspaper, Red Star, said the Soviet Union "regards the conference not as a propaganda forum or as a ceremonial gathering for the empty exchange of words, but as a practical action for relaxation of tensions in Europe and an opening toward many-sided cooperation."

For the United States and its allies, one of the major issues was how far the Soviet bloc would go in easing its restrictions on contacts between its people and those in the West.

The issue caused the biggest controversy during the six months of preliminary negotiation to set up the conference, and the Western ministers were expected to make much of it in their opening statements this week.

The Soviet Union has long pushed for an agreement between its Warsaw Pact organization and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization that would in effect recognize the postwar division of Europe into Communist and non-Communist groupings.

The United States and its allies for some years opposed such a conference but had to join in after the Russians agreed to their demand for negotiations on reduction of both Communist and NATO forces in Central Europe. These talks are now under way in Vienna.

The foreign ministers will meet here for a week, trying to agree on declarations for the guidance of committees that will go to work in Geneva in September. The committees will seek to work out a detailed agreement for endorsement by another high-level conference. The Soviet Union hopes this will be a summit meeting, but the Western nations have not committed themselves to this.

The ministers from the United States, Canada and all European countries except Albania have before them an agenda of topics agreed on under three main headings during the preliminary negotiations that ended June 8.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon will speak on Watergate "in an appropriate forum" after the Senate Watergate committee concludes the current phase of its threepronged investigation, the White House says.

The announcement by presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler came Monday from Nixon's San Clemente complex.

In Washington, meanwhile, the committee's chief counsel announced that the panel would conduct hearings every weekday from next Tuesday through Aug. 3.

The committee, chaired by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., has estimated it will complete by August its work on the phase involving the break-in into Democratic National Committee headquarters at the Watergate office-apartment complex and the subsequent coverup.

Counsel Samuel Dash also listed Monday the names of 20 witnesses the committee plans to call after resuming its hearings next week. Congress is in recess this week for the Fourth of July holiday.

In San Clemente, Ziegler ruled out a Nixon news conference before the conclusion of the committee's first phase. Nixon has not held a news conference since March 15 and last spoke publicly on the Watergate scandal May 22.

Food Price Control Plan Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's Food Advisory Committee planned a closed session today to work on proposed new food price controls after being told that the current freeze will cause higher prices.

Food industry spokesmen Monday predicted food shortages because of the 60-day freeze. They also forecast disruptions in the economy.

The committee also heard from Kay Ryan, a government consumer specialist, who said she would prefer some food shortages to a continuing upward spiral in food costs.

Ms. Ryan, who is consumer counsel to the Cost of Living Council, also told the committee that consumers lack confidence in the administration's ability and commitment to control inflation.

The Food Advisory Committee is working on proposals to regulate the food industry that would be included in the administration's new Phase 4 price control program. The controls are to replace the present freeze.

Ms. Ryan, a designation she prefers, said: "Food prices must be brought under control if Phase 4 is to have credibility."

Weather

Partly cloudy today, tonight and Wednesday. Chance of late afternoon and evening thundershowers. High, mid 80s, low, mid 60s. High Wednesday mid 80s. Possibility of rain, 40 per cent today and tonight and 30 per cent tomorrow.

The first topic covers the general "confidence building" aspects of European security and cooperation, as well as 10 guiding principles borrowed mainly from the United Nations charter. It includes a proposal for advance notification of military movements and exchange of observers in military maneuvers.

The second topic concentrates on economic, scientific, technological and environmental cooperation between the different economic and political systems in Europe.

The third topic covers the area of cultural, educational and human contacts. It includes Western demands dealing with reunification of families, marriages between nationals of different countries, a greater flow of information between East and West and improved working conditions for foreign journalists.

Nixon Mum On Watergate

The presidential spokesman said he could not be specific about when Nixon planned to speak out or in what manner.

But it was the first time the White House has said flatly that the President would respond to testimony given to the committee. Ziegler also said Nixon would not appear before the committee or before a federal grand jury probing the Watergate scandal.

Ervin, Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., the ranking GOP member, and Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., late last week said they felt Nixon should testify voluntarily in some manner before the committee.

None of the committee members could be reached Monday night for comment on Ziegler's statements.

Former White House counsel John W. Dean III testified for five days last week, telling the senators and a national television audience that he believes Nixon knew of the cover-up as early as last September, three months after the break-in.

The list of witnesses released by Dash includes most of the former White House or Nixon campaign aides named in testimony since May. John N. Mitchell, former attorney general and former head of Nixon's reelection committee, is scheduled to be the first witness a week from today.

Committee sources said Monday that Mitchell, like Dean before him, will refrain from talking to the committee staff this week, to prevent leaks about his testimony to reporters. He will submit to private questioning Monday evening, his lawyers said.

Mitchell is expected to corroborate parts of Dean's testimony, one of his lawyers said, but will not incriminate Nixon as did the former counsel.

In other developments related to the Watergate affair:

—Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson told reporters he has not been asked for his recommendations on how Nixon might respond to testimony heard by the committee nor has he offered them to Nixon. But he said he has explored several possible avenues, including a news conference or other questioning that avoids constitutional questions posed by grand jury or committee sessions.

Postal Employees Given Bargains

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postal employees are carting away at bargain prices furniture and office equipment declared surplus by the U.S. Postal Service and put up for sale to its employees.

Among the bargains are used electric typewriters worth up to $400 new selling for $45.

Postal officials said the sale was arranged because the service is moving from its huge, ornate office building on Pennsylvania Avenue to a new $30-million headquarters purchased in the L'Enfant Plaza complex across from the Mall.

"By selling to the employees we may not only possibly give employees a bargain but we are saving the expense of having the equipment moved," a postal spokesman said. "The articles are not of sufficient quantity or condition to warrant formal competitive disposition by GSA (General Services Administration)," he said.

The Postal Service is not bound by regulations that require most government agencies to turn disposable property over to GSA. That agency then makes the items available

Services Held For Dead POW

DENVER (AP) — Six former prisoners of war charged with collaborating with the enemy wept openly at the funeral of a POW comrade who shot himself to death last week.

The six were accused along with Marine Sgt. Abel Larry Kavanaugh, 24, by Air Force Col. Theodore W. Guy of Tucson, Ariz., the senior POW officer at the "Plantation" compound near Hanoi.

to other government organizations, or sells or donates them to state or local governments or approved non-government organizations.

Last Thursday morning, postal workers spilled onto the Pennsylvania Avenue sidewalk for the first two-day sale, which featured several hundred wooden and metal desks, many of them executive size, for $25 to $35; leatherette couches for $50 and matching chairs for $35; 300 to 400 wooden office chairs at $8 apiece, and 40-odd electric typewriters and office machines—some worth upwards of $400 new—for as little as $45.

By Friday afternoon, most of the items had been sold on an "as is" basis. This meant that the Postal Service took no responsibility for the condition of the items and the purchasers had to carry them away at their own expense.

In one office of the Pennsylvania Avenue building—an office formerly occupied by a senior Postal Service official—was a forgotten cardboard poster bearing a photo of Postmaster General E. T. Klassen and a neatly lettered quote: "Service is the only thing we have to sell."

Ohio Assembly Takes Up Sundry Claims Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Attorneys who represented Ohio's National Guardsmen following the 1970 Kent State shootings will receive their fees if a bill passed Monday by the Ohio House wins final approval.

By a vote of 81-10, the House okayed the state sundry claims bill and sent it to the Senate. An amendment to pay the attorney fees, offered by Rep. William G. Batchelder, R-93 Medina, received a floor vote of 72-13. It had been taken out by the House Finance Committee.

The sundry claims bill, providing $621,021 for claims against the state, may be the last of its kind to appear in the legislature. The legislature is expected to approve another measure to abolish the state Sundry Claims Board—which makes recommendations to the legislature—and open the state to lawsuits.

House Finance Chairman Myrl Shoemaker, D-88 Bourneville, criticized the present system of having a quasi-judicial board consisting of members who are not required to be judges or even lawyers.

In another amendment to the bill, more controversial this year than usual, the House took out the proposed payment of $48,000 in back salaries of three former state senators who lost their seats after the legislature was reappointed in 1966. Each sought $8,000 a year for 1967 and 1968. They had been elected to four-year terms in 1964.

Former Sen. Ross Pepple of Lima, who lost out from the gallery as the House refused his claim, was the first to seek pay for the two years he did not serve. He subsequently was joined before the Sundry Claims Board by former Sens. Danny D. Johnson of New Philadelphia and John J. Corrigan of Euclid.

All were defeated in their newly-apportioned districts when they were forced to run in 1966 after serving only two years of their terms.

Pepple is a Republican. Corrigan and Johnson are Democrats.

Rep. George D. Tablack, D-52 Campbell, predicted the former senators' salaries will be put back into the bill by the Senate.

Those attorneys due to receive state payments for successfully defending the National Guard troops at Kent State, as the bill went to the Senate, are Delmar Christensen, Akron, $10,886; John W. Simon, Kirtland, $1,200; Ernest Teodosio, Akron, $1,500; C. D. Lambros, Cleveland, $11,814, and William Ziegler, Cleveland, $24,197.

Most of the bills were based on charges of $25 or $30 an hour.

The legislature wraps up its sessions for the holiday week today.

In other business Monday, House and Senate leaders said they would try to work out an agreement between the two chambers following the "one-upmanship" that resulted in passage by each of its own state lottery bill.

The House voted 60-13 Monday to create a five-member commission to start and operate a lottery. The Senate had voted last Thursday for a different bill to do the same thing. Ohioans voted in the May primary to lift a constitutional ban against lotteries.

Four other bills were passed by the House and sent to the Senate, including one that would put the state officially into the fight against noise pollution. That measure, by Rep. Tablack and others, would grant tax exemptions on equipment installed by industries, if the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency determines that noise pollution abatement is its main purpose.

Tablack told the House that while Ohio currently has no noise pollution standards, industries are asking the legislation in anticipation of them in the near future.

The state already grants tax exemptions to industries on equipment used to control air and water pollution.

Representatives gave 73-18 approval to another major bill that provides for

Pickaway County Sheriff Investigates 5 Accidents

CAR-TRUCK CRASH—Roy W. Cash, Chillicothe, received facial lacerations when his car ran into the side of a State Highway truck at the intersection of State Route 56 and 104. The driver of the truck was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated five accidents Monday resulting in four citations and two injuries.

Roy W. Cash, 32, Route 1, Chillicothe, received facial lacerations, contusions and abrasions when he ran into the side of a State of Ohio Highway Department dump truck at the intersection of State Routes 56 and 104.

Maurice F. Brown, 58, Route 1, Circleville, was stopped at the lights at the intersection and pulled into the path of the Cash auto.

Cash's car struck the side of the truck causing extensive damage to its front end.

A passenger in the state truck, Mike G. Hamrick, 19, 420 Glenmount Court, was injured in the accident.

Deputy James C. Deal cited Brown for failure to yield the right of way. Michael G. Dille, 19, Route 1, Stoutsville, was cited in two separate accidents just 20 minutes apart.

According to a report taken by Sheriff Deputy Dan Dewey, Dille ran into a $925 soda pop display and dispenser case belonging to the 7-Up Bottling Company, of Columbus, at the Rich Oil Service Station in South Bloomfield.

While investigating the accident, Dewey noticed damage to the auto that had not occurred in the service station accident.

Questioning Dille about the damage, the deputy learned the driver ran off the road on County Road 511 just a few minutes before. Dille said it did not cause any damage, so he did not feel it necessary to report the accident to authorities.

Deputy Dewey cited Dille for reckless operation and for failure to stop after an accident.

Phyllis Ann Hughes, 38, Columbus, was cited for failure to yield at a turn in an accident on U.S. Route 23 Monday afternoon.

Hughes was southbound on Route 23 when she made a left turn into Davis Marathon Station and was struck by a car driven by Michael F. Kelly, 21, Columbus, who was driving north on Route 23.

Both drivers complained of injuries, but were referred to their doctors. Deputy J. Phillip Brown investigated the accident.

Cattle on a bridge caused James Albert Parrett, 25, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, to run his car off the road down a bridge embankment.

According to the report taken by Sheriff's Deputy Dan Dewey, Parrett was travelling on the Southward-Buxick Road when he saw cattle on the bridge and went off the road to avoid hitting them.

Parrett's auto was totally demolished.

Sheriff Reports June Statistics

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated 95 accidents during the month of June, raising 1973's total to 516.

Two of the wrecks were fatalities, while 37 persons were injured in 33 accidents.

Failure to have the car under control resulted in 27 of the accidents, excessive speed was the blame for 13 accidents, and failure to yield the right of way, driving left of center, and failure to stop after an accident for seven wrecks each.

The time when most accidents occurred was 9 to 10 p.m. on Fridays.

Circleville Township recorded 11 accidents, with Darby and Washington Twp. each recording 10.

The office logged 78 offense reports during June, 34 for malicious destruction, 19 for breaking and entering, and 10 for grand larceny.

Deputies also compiled 440 aid and incident reports, 1,974 for the year. Majority of the total were for traffic complaints, checking suspicious cars and persons, house checks and miscellaneous calls.

Mrs. Dore Presented Women's Club Award

Ashville's Outstanding Woman of 1973 is Mrs. Georgia Dore.

The sixth grade teacher was honored Monday night during the opening ceremony of the Ashville festival. Her selection by the Women's Civic Club was made public prior to the judging of the little king and queen candidates.

Her career in education has spanned 28 years, all but two within what is now the Teays Valley School District. She now teaches sixth grade at Ashville Elementary, but has taught at South Bloomfield and Walnut also.

The Civic Club, of which she is a charter member and past president, cited Mrs. Dore for her affiliation with local and state education associations and PTA and her assistance with the village's Head Start program. She has directed the program for five years, the last three years as co-director.

A plaque, denoting the distinction given her by the club, and a dozen red roses were presented to her by Mrs. Roger Hedges.

Mrs. Dore is the mother of two children: Marty, a legal secretary in Columbus and Bill, a lieutenant serving with the U. S. Army in Germany.

The Civic Club also mentioned Mrs. Dore's activities as a member of the First English Lutheran Church, Ashville, the American Association of University Women and Pickaway County Historical Society.

Mrs. Dore is the fourth Ashville woman to be honored by the club. The Outstanding Woman award was initiated in 1970 at the Ashville festival and presented to Nell Oesterle. Helen Hedges and Gretchen Featheringham were the second and third year recipients of the award.

GTE Trains Paul Bowman

Paul F. Bowman of Ashville, a switchman, has received a certificate for completing a special course at General Telephone Co. of Ohio's Technical Training School at Marion.

The course covered 84A Carrier, a new transmitting device used for reducing party-lines. It is a more compact and lower cost system than previous models.

Carrier equipment changes voice impulses to radio signals and at the receiving end converts them back. Such equipment makes it possible to offer one- or two-party service to more customers without constructing large amounts of new cable.

Bowman studied installation, test and repair aspects of the system.

A graduate of Berne Union High School, he has been with the company 13 years. He works in the company's Circleville district.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Anniversary Is Hairy Problem

DEAR ABBY: Like so many others I can't believe I am actually writing a Dear Abby letter. My inlaws' anniversary is coming up so I called my mother in law and told her that John (my husband) and I wanted to take her and Dad out for a small dinner celebration on their anniversary.

She said she'd ask Dad and would let me know. She called me back the next day and said (and I quote), "Dad said he was not going anywhere with John until he gets his hair cut."

I couldn't believe my ears! John is over 21 and nobody has to tell him when to cut his hair. He wears it longer than he used to, but it's clean and well-groomed and not really long by today's standards.

When I told John about it he said, "Well, I guess we won't be with them on their anniversary."

As things stand now, we aren't speaking to his parents until we get an apology. Don't you think we deserve one?

DAUGHTER IN LAW

DEAR DAUGHTER IN LAW: I happen to believe that John has the right to wear his hair the way he wishes, and his parents also have the right to absent themselves from his company if they so desire, but I wouldn't hold out for an apology. Start talking. But be careful what you say.

DEAR ABBY: It's Little League baseball time again and I need your help. The father of one of these boys piles all these boys in the back of his pickup truck, some with their feet hanging over the side, and you know how boys are—they don't sit still, and some of them like to show off.

I have been driving behind them in my car and my heart has been in my mouth many times. The driver of the truck can't keep his eye on the boys in the back, and sometimes he's watching scenery instead of the road ahead of him.

I have heard this man's wife say they both read your column, Abby, so maybe if you print this it will do some good.

I don't want him to think I don't appreciate his hauling those Little Leaguers around, because I think he's great, but I worry.

NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Here's your letter . . . right over home plate.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to inform R.L.C. and others who have also list items in restaurant checkrooms, that she has a very good chance of recovering her loss from the restaurant management under bailment laws, regardless of the signs proclaiming "Not responsible for loss of personal property."

I would like to add that a practical business law course is a valuable investment for anyone.

DAWN IN FLORIDA

DEAR DAWN: I also took a course in "business law" and I would like to add, "A little learning is a dangerous thing." When one has a legal problem he is ahead to hire a competent lawyer and pay him for what he knows.

Agriculture Department Help Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—The national network of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices will have up to 3,000 fewer employees reporting for work this week under a cutback ordered by the Agriculture Department.

The cutback, called a reduction in force, is linked directly to the elimination of the Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP). The program, which provided assistance to farmers for carrying out approved conservation projects, was canceled last winter.

Congress wants to restore REAP operations. And, according to USDA sources, some type of program may be forthcoming soon as a compromise between Capitol Hill and the administration.

The House and Senate have approved appropriations bills for financing the Agriculture Department during the fiscal year that began July 1. Each included $160 million for the restoration of REAP.

In addition, new farm legislation passed by the Senate and a similar plan now pending in the House contain provisions for putting a REAP-type program into operation.

Meanwhile, the USDA has proceeded with job terminations in field offices, including 2,800 county offices plus state offices. Officials say that an average of one job per county office plus an estimated 200 from state ASCS headquarters will be done away with.

Kenneth E. Frick, administrator of the conservation service said last week that displaced employees are being helped to find employment elsewhere in the agency.

"Where possible, they are offered jobs at the same grade (salary) level and, in other cases, at a lower grade," Frick said in a statement. "If the new ASCS job requires relocation, the employee will be reimbursed by the government for moving costs."

Department sources said over the weekend, however, that the job switches may be "temporary arrangements" since some REAP-type program may begin as soon as Congress gives final clearance.

A Page Of Opinion

Pondering Hemline

Economic prognosticators who have developed astute intuitions glance at the fashion columns of newspapers almost as regularly as the business pages. They may not like to admit publicly they believe the old adage about business conditions coinciding with the length of skirts, but in their calling it doesn't hurt to touch all bases.

If they appear a trifle glum at the moment, it could be because they caught the new fall styles revealed by a few fashion houses. Longer skirts, opined these designers, definitely will set the trend for fall. Maybe so, and then again the economists may be saved by the recent independence of the female style patron.

Even the designers reflect uncertainty over their barometer, by featuring skirt lengths from just below the knee to the ankle. The opinions expressed by some of the audiences who have witnessed the new showings give hope to the economist that not all is despair.

One often expressed comment is that after women have finally achieved a high degree of freedom in clothing design, they are not about to go back to wrapping themselves up like mummies.

That comment may not rank with usual economic commentary, but it could be enough to put the smile back on the faces of those who need to know what people are thinking before they are.

Communist Frustration

Communists just never seem to learn about farmers. Chinese communists several times announced "A Great Leap Forward," only to have the efforts fall flat on their faces because farmers resisted the basis of the program — collectivization of farms.

But the communist rulers were unrelenting, and almost every year they are forced to buy great quantities of grain from capitalist countries. What they use for money is a good question, since China's exports are miniscule.

One might think the Chinese would learn from the Russians, who have been at this business of communism much longer, and have never succeeded in making good communists out of farmers.

The trouble is that the land tends to make every man a capitalist. He who plants the seed and tends the growing plant sees no reason why another man should eat, without sweating, what the peasant has worked so hard to produce.

Unless he is permitted to keep a share of what he produces, the peasant loses interest in bringing his farm to top production. Over the years the soviets have tried every scheme under the sun, but they have never made their communist theories work on the farm. Nor will the Chinese.

Ripping Off Colson

BY JEFFREY HART

Former Presidential counsellor Charles Colson has not yet been shown to have been involved in any illegal Watergate-connected activities, and yet for the past several months he and others like him have been subjected to an unending stream of innuendo and unsupported allegation in the press. Colson has been convicted of nothing, has not even been convincingly accused.

We don't know what other allegations and revelations may ensue, but as of June 21, every accusation against him would have been laughed out of a court of law. Yet some of the mud is bound to stick, and to put it mildly, can hardly do him any good as he endeavors to launch a new private legal practice.

Take one headline, for example, in a large Eastern paper on June 21: "Hunt Allegedly Links Colson to Break-In Plot at Bremer Lodging."

That is a beaut. It seems that convicted Watergater E. Howard Hunt told a theoretically "secret" session of the Ervin committee that Colson, after the Wallace shooting, phoned him and asked him to break into Bremer's Milwaukee apartment. The goal, "according to accounts" of the testimony, was to see if Bremer had any left-wing connections.

But consider the facts backing up that headline.

The headline was not even based upon a direct view of Hunt's testimony, but upon the unsupported summary of a "source."

No evidence was adduced besides Hunt's own leaked and unsupported testimony that any such phone call or request was made.

The next day, Hunt's own lawyer, one William O. Bittman, took a decidedly arm's-length view of that testimony. He said that Hunt had not yet had an opportunity to "correct the transcript," that when Hunt had testified he had been "exhausted," that Hunt had had no sleep for a day and a half and that same morning had had a fight with a cellmate in the District of Columbia Jail.

"In fairness to Hunt and Colson," said Hunt's lawyer, "the text is subject to correction because of the unusual circumstances of the testimony."

Colson himself denies giving any such order to Hunt. He says that he can establish the fact that he spoke to Hunt only after 10 p.m. that day, by which time the FBI had provided a "detailed accounting" of the materials in Bremer's apartment. The FBI confirms Colson's claim that he was in regular contact that day with Assistant FBI Director Mark Felt.

Though the truth here has not been established with absolute finality, it is manifest that the initial leak from the Ervin committee "source" was totally irresponsible, and probably malicious. The headline was a smear, the umpteenth endured by Colson.

The conclusion cannot be put more forcefully than it was recently by James Burnham of National Review:

"The editors, publishers, and relevant writers of any British newspapers or magazines that had dealt with the Watergate affair and the persons involved therein as the New York Times, Washington Post, Time, Newsweek and much of the rest of the U. S. media have done would already have been heavily fined and sent to jail. . . For their presumptions of guilt and their other prejudicial comments on persons in mid-course of judicial process, they would have been sentenced out of hand for contempt. And under English law their guilt of multiple libels would be so obvious that a trial with a verdict of guilty would have been little more than a formality."

838th Irish Death Noted

BELFAST (AP) — British Pvt. Reginald Roberts' wife telephoned to wish him a happy birthday. It was his 25th.

Mrs. Roberts called Sunday from a hospital in England where she is awaiting the birth of their child.

Within an hour, she was a widow. Roberts was shot and killed by a sniper in a Roman Catholic district of Belfast. Army patrols immediately fanned out through the district looking for the gunman. But they didn't find him.

Roberts had been in the army six years. This was his second four-month tour of duty in Northern Ireland as a member of the Light Infantry Regiment. He was the third soldier of the regiment to die in the past two months, and Ulster's 838th fatality in four years of violence.

Circleville was the locale of a statewide radio program when the "Ohio Story" featured a local resident whose name had become well known all over the nation—Ted Lewis, the "medicine man for the blues."

The "Ohio Story" was a 15 minute semi-dramatic program about human interest stories of Ohio's people, events and institutions heard every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening over a special network of radio stations. It was heard over WBNS, Columbus.

The broadcast told only the beginning of the fabulous career that was to lead Ted Lewis from Circleville to the pinnacle of success in show business and to a recognition almost without parallel in the entertainment world.

Speaking Of Your Health

I am past 50 and know that I have had many psychological problems.

For years I have avoided consulting anyone. Am I too old for psychological help?

Mrs. I. G., Calif.

Dear Mrs. G.:

I know of no age group that cannot benefit from psycho-therapy, psycho-direction, or some form of psychological guidance.

Some psychoanalysts believe that intensive psychoanalysis should be reserved for younger groups. Psychoanalysis differs from psychotherapy, and they feel that careful screening is necessary before admitting a patient into this kind of program.

Individual analysis, group therapy, and transactional analysis are only a few of the methods that would be of value to you.

Certainly you are young enough to realize there are still many horizons of happiness that can come if you eliminate your emotional problems.

Discuss your problems openly with your own doctor. He is in the best position to refer you for consultation and the eventual choice of the kind of approach most beneficial to you.

You have taken a giant step forward when you realize that such help is important for your happiness.

It is no shame at any age to seek such guidance. Had you done so at an earlier age you might have been spared many of the conflicts that may have interfered with your rightful heritage of good emotional health.

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Some reformers believe that high taxes are a good way to curb sin. But since confirmed sinners are pretty determined people, it is likely that high taxes only make them more ingenious or, at times, a little more uncomfortable. But sin is kind of like education: it isn't what you paid for it that counts — it's what you get out of it.

Payroll Tax Base Boosted In New Bill

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Workers who earn at least $12,600 will have to pay $35.10 more annually to fund an increase in Social Security benefits next year.

A bill giving 30 million Social Security recipients the 5.6 per cent increase in benefits was signed Sunday by President Nixon. It was passed by Congress Saturday and flown here for Nixon's signature.

The Social Security raises, included in legislation extending the national debt ceiling of $465 billion to Nov. 30, take effect next July 1.

Under the bill, average benefits will increase from $161 to $170 a month for single persons and from $277 to $293 for couples.

Guaranteed federal minimums under special programs for the aged, blind and disabled also will be upped July 1, 1974, from $130 to $140 a month for single persons and from $195 to $210 for couples.

At the present time, the 5.85 per cent Social Security payroll tax is applied to a maximum wage base of $10,800. Under previous legislation, the base was to have increased to $12,000 on Jan. 1, 1974. Under the bill signed by Nixon on Sunday, the maximum wage base will now jump to $12,600 on Jan. 1.

I have no trouble falling asleep. Even after 10 hours of sleep I awake with a feeling of drowsiness.

I can barely start my daily chores. Mrs. P. B., Okla.

Dear Mrs. B.:

You did not in your letter tell me if you are taking any anti-allergy drugs or other drugs that are known to cause prolonged drowsiness.

Many people who take even a small amount of a sleeping pill or a tranquilizer are similarly affected, even after a good night's sleep.

Sleeping in a poorly ventilated room may be responsible.

Also, people who do not have an exciting drive in their home or in their occupation sometimes are by such lethargy. It helps them block out the unpleasantness of the anticipated day's activity.

Some medical conditions such as low blood pressure, low blood sugar, and underactivity of the thyroid gland can cause fatigue and apathy. Lingering low-grade infections are also deactivating and enervating.

It would be advantageous to you to find out if there is some underlying physical reason for your fatigue.

SPEAKING OF YOUR HEALTH..Young children "fortunate" enough to be given motorized mini-bikes are being exposed to a serious danger. A number of severe neck injuries have been reported in children driving even at moderate speeds, in so-called "safe" areas. A strung-out wire or cable that cannot be seen at a reasonable distance suddenly becomes a death-dealing hazard.

Cats and women are getting away with more today than dogs and men did a generation ago. The world is getting more feline and female.

Some people say they don't feel the inflation so much anymore. That's because they are like a fellow dunked in the middle of the icy Atlantic ocean in February. He becomes numb before he drowns.

Only a man in love with a woman can be married to her 50 years and still find her a mystery. But that doesn't make him the dumbest man in his neighborhood. It makes him the richest.

If you think your neighbors call too often and stay too long, why not try a simple solution? Just serve lemonade.

For every person who is afraid of dying, there are three who are afraid of living.

Now that July is here, we can all recall what we were trying to remember last April — better get the living room air conditioner repaired right away.

Throwing away or giving away an old sport coat is one of the greatest sacrifices a man has to make in his life. A well-worn jacket, a pair of cracked and wrinkled but comfortable shoes, even a tie he thought he looked dashing in back in 1946 — these are mementoes of his yesterdays he clings to, even though they have been in the closet unworn for months or even years. When he puts them on and his wife or children laugh at him, he feels it is a sacrilege. To him they are not mocking his garb; they are mocking the man he once was and still feels himself to be. If they are thrown away, he feels, he is expendable, too. That hurts. A man likes to think that all things about his life will last forever.

There is a conjecture among scientists and philosophers that in time the human race will be reduced to a single gender. Well, that doesn't seem too awful. Most of us have spent our lives enjoying one gender — usually the other one.

NEW DELICACY FOR AMERICANS—Robert C. Learson of the National Marine Fisheries Service at Gloucester, Mass., holds a little-known red crab, which may soon be served to Americans. Researchers say the tasty crabs have been discovered in vast numbers along the Atlantic Coast just beyond the continental shelf, could become a substitute for the overfished lobster.

See Injustice Via Welfare, Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States must better coordinate its Social Security, welfare and similar programs to end injustices both to recipients and to wage earners who pay the supporting taxes, the chairman of a congressional study committee said Monday.

Rep. Martha W. Griffiths, D-Mich., made the comment in connection with the publication of six studies of welfare programs by academic and other specialists in the field. The studies were commissioned by the Joint Economic subcommittee on fiscal policy, of which she is chairman.

Mrs. Griffiths said the studies demonstrate that, because of overlaps and conflicting regulations, "many low- and moderate-income workers gain little or no financial advantage from their own or their employers' contributions to social insurance programs such as Social Security and unemployment insurance."

To illustrate the effect of overlapping programs, Mrs. Griffiths cited a hypothetical case of two Michigan men, one of whom has contributed to Social Security during his working years, while the other has not. Both, she said, are assured by the welfare system of monthly income of $282 for themselves and their wives.

The welfare system pays the full amount for one couple, she said, while "the other man receives a Social Security check for himself and his wife of $250 monthly—about the average benefit for such couples nationwide—but he has found they can't live on this. So welfare gives him a small grant of $32," she said.

"The Social Security contributor has nothing extra to show for long years of paying ever higher payroll taxes."

Female Bald Eagle To Get Mate

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Betsy Ross, the Cincinnati Zoo's lone American Bald Eagle, has decided after 11 years she doesn't want to be a spinster.

One of only 48 of her species in captivity in the U.S., she is putting the finishing touches on her nest awaiting a consort candidate from Chicago's Brookfield Zoo.

Zoo officials at Chicago plan to bring the eagle here this week after receiving permission from the U.S. Department of the Interior. The government agency has held ownership to all American Bald Eagles since the species was declared endangered.

Breeding an American Bald Eagle is a nest of problems, said Cincinnati Zoo

Director Ed Maruska. But he thinks he has a method that will preserve the species.

The Cincinnati Zoo spent $200,000 in 1970 to build a free flying cage on a steep hillside rising 70 feet to the top and 144 long to house its birds of prey.

Inside are vultures, who already have begun breeding, eagles and hawks.

While the birds are able to stretch their broad wings, they also are being fed a steady diet of "Mr. Ed's Magic Powder," according to keepers. The powder, developed by Maruska, is a combination of minerals, trace elements and vitamins the animals get naturally in the wild state.

The diet has proved effective with other animals, particularly the gorillas. Cincinnati holds the world record in gorilla births with six in three years.

But with eagles, you first have to find out the birds sexes before pairing them up. Maruska uses a blood chromosome test.

While males generally are larger, you can't always be sure which is which, he said.

"There's no other way you can check the sex unless you are another eagle," said Maruska, his hands scarred by the bites of outraged birds.

"There is no doubt our eagle is lovesick," he said. "She's perching in a man-made nest and she's defending and adding to it."

Maruska is borrowing the Chicago bird from Dr. W. Peter Crowcroft. They'll split the offspring, if the government does not decide to send them elsewhere.

"This is really going to be an event," Maruska said.

Anytime you have birds of prey courting, it's an event.

"If they hit it off, though, it will be another problem. They won't let the keeper into the cage."

Vietnamese Girl Tells Of Torture

SAIGON (AP) — "I was beaten on the chest until I vomited blood," says Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao. "They put sandbags on my body and beat me with a hammer, walked on me with boots."

The slender Vietnamese girl occasionally pounded her fist into her palm to illustrate the force of the beatings she said she suffered during 149 days in South Vietnamese jails. She used her hands to cover her flat, girlish chest while describing the pain.

Thao said she is 14, but a government source said records list her as 34.

Although she was released less than two weeks ago, Thao bears no visible marks or scars from her confinement. She said there are none because the guards placed the sandbags on her body before hitting her, and that their pinches caused superficial wounds that have long since healed.

Government officials refused to comment on Thao's tales of beatings and torture. Requests were turned down for interviews with officials charged with overseeing government prisons and police stations.

A government source said she was arrested Jan. 23 because she belonged to a Saigon student union which he identified as a Viet Cong youth organization. The source said she worked as a sort of liaison for various Viet Cong groups.

Thao denied she was a Viet Cong supporter. She claimed she was jailed because she opposes the regime of President Nguyen Van Thieu.

A government official said that among stacks of books at her home police found words to songs extolling peace. He said some of the songs may have been played on the national television station, but that they were banned at the time Thao was arrested.

Fast Bikes Were OK In Lorain

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Early settlers in Lorain could peddle bicycles faster than a horse could run—mainly because the speed limit was higher for bicycles.

Horses were held to six miles an hour, but bicyclists could peddle furiously along at 8 m.p.h., provided they sounded a bell at intersections to warn pedestrians.

Violating either speed limit was punishable by fines of $1 to $20 and up to 20 days in jail.

The 19th century laws came to light recently when workmen clearing the 100-year-old Lorain City Hall found a book of old laws in a storage area.

Some other laws no longer enforced in the community:

—Swimming was legal only if one's body were covered and between 6 a.m. and 8:30 p.m.

—Saloons could stay open an hour later during spring and summer months—until 10 p.m. A saloonkeeper could employ only one female helper—his wife.

—The town marshal was paid $600 a year, and he was expected to be on duty from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.

—A chicken flying its coop cost the owner a 25-cent fine. Letting a "swine kind" animal free, however, netted a 75-cent fine.

Vertical gold containers holding arrangements of mixed white, yellow and apricot flowers with emerald and huckleberry foliage centered the altar. Palm trees, a kneeling bench garlanded with bows and fresh flowers, and white satin bows with emerald foliage completed the decor.

The Rev. Charles Hemming officiated the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Glendenning, Route 1, Stoutsville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young, also of Route 1, Stoutsville.

Miss Karen Miller, organist and Miss LuAnne Pontious and Mr. Victor Pontious Jr., vocalists included in their program the songs: "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face," "I Don't Know How To Love Him," "We've Only Just Begun," "Close To You," "Theme From Love Story" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

For her wedding, the former Miss Glendenning selected a gown of silk organza over taffeta, designed with empire waist trimmed with Venetian lace, sheer bishop sleeves with long ruffled cuffs and lace at the hemline. Her mantilla was also accented with matching lace.

She carried her mother's white Bible topped with a cascade arrangement of white miniature carnations and yellow Sweetheart roses with Godfiah leaves.

Mrs. Richard Geyer, as matron of honor, wore a princess style gown of apricot silk organza with white cotton Venise lace accenting the square neckline and empire waist, short puffed sleeves and an A-line skirt with a deep ruffle forming the hemline.

She carried a natural colored fireside basket of mixed yellow, white and green flowers with the dress color predominating, and sprays of fresh ivy.

Miss Chris Glendenning, cousin of the bride, Miss Phyllis Young and Miss Mary Jo Young, sisters of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids and Miss Lisa Glendenning, a sister was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns, two in yellow and two in mint green, were styled identically like that of the honor attendant.

They carried natural colored fireside baskets with apricot, white, green and yellow flowers, the color of the gown predominating, with sprays of fresh ivy.

Tracy Wasem was flower girl, wearing a street length dress of mint green and carrying a tiny fireside basket with mixed flowers and ivy sprays. The bride made the gowns worn by the junior bridesmaid and flower girl.

Mr. Bill Young was best man for his brother and ushers were Mr. Greg Glendenning, brother of the bride, Mr.

Bob Goldman, Mr. Jeff Borland and Mr. Jerry Wygant.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the K of P Hall in Stoutsville with Miss Lisa Christy, Mrs. Roger Miller and Mrs. Jack Shaeffer as hostesses. Miss Jenny Doner was in charge of the guest book.

The three tiered cake was wreathed with huckleberry foliage, and spring flowers in shades of apricot, yellow, green and white and decorated with daisies, topped with two doves. The cake was made and decorated by Miss Lois Hartranft.

Following a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the new Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside at Oxford, Ohio where the couple will attend Miami University.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Amanda-Clearcreek High School, attended Ohio University-Lancaster Campus, for two years and was employed with Kroger Company.

Mr. Young, also a graduate of Amanda-Clearcreek High School, is a senior at Miami University, majoring in Industrial Technology.

A rehearsal dinner at the L-K Restaurant the evening before the wedding was hosted by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young.

Seek Disaster Funds For 2 Ohio Counties

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. John Gilligan has asked President Nixon to declare Franklin and Crawford counties disaster areas as a result of heavy rains late last month.

Franklin County suffered $4.24 million damage to private property, and Crawford County, $800,000. If the two counties are declared disaster areas, homeowners and businesses would be eligible for low-interest federal loans.

Pickaway Senior Citizens Plan Events At All Day Meet

Approximately 100 members and guests of the Pickaway Senior Citizen organization met Thursday, all day in the Lutheran Parish House. Morning activities consisted of making a lap robe, playing cards, dart ball and just visiting.

After enjoying sack lunches, those having June birthdays were honored and five birthday cakes were shared by all. The special birthday people were: Clarence Radcliff, Peg Downs, Adella Huffman, Northa Karshner, Mary Seall, Ethel Marshall, Mary Denman, Evelyn Carter, Jean Brobst, Roberta Valentine, Myrtle Wetherell, Beatriz Costillo, Mary Clark, Maggie Mavis, Bessie Dunkle, Raleigh Jacobs, Beatrice Owens, Twyla Lorentz, Forrest Goodman, and a new member, Ray Beery.

John Miranda, president, introduced Mrs. Pauline Jones, chaplain, who conducted a short memorial service for the eight members who died during the past year. She read several inspirational items and as she read the following names, a flower was put into a vase for each one: Nellie L. Richardson, Edward Hutchison, Mary J. Stout, Emily Amey, Esther Bartholomew, Mae Neff, Ronald Nau and Elizabeth Ebenhack. The group sang several hymns, concluding with, "Beyond The Sunset," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. May Rhymer.

Tom Weldon, County Game Conservationist, showed two reels of colored film. The first one was about the weasel family, and the second about the deer family. Both films were beautifully done and very entertaining and informative.

Concluding the entertainment, little Trina and Tara Hartranft, granddaughters of Mrs. Viola Hartranft, gave readings and sang a song.

During the business meeting, it was announced by Mrs. Blanche Kerns that she had obtained permission from Good Shepherd United Methodist Church to have a smorgasbord supper in their Service Center in September.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

(Q) Is it true that many students with summer jobs may qualify for exemptions from Federal income tax withholding?

(A) Yes, many students with summer jobs, retired persons, and others working part-time, may be able to qualify for exemption from withholding by filing a Form W-4E with their employer. These forms are available from employers and many IRS and school placement offices.

Individuals who qualify for exemption from withholding are those who did not have to pay income tax for the previous year and do not expect to have to pay tax for the current year. These eligible taxpayers generally will be in one of three categories:

High Winds Bring Damage To Plains

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms which had whipped through sections of the midcontinent diminished early today, but a few locations reported power failures and damage from winds of nearly 80 miles an hour.

Rain and high winds lashed several communities in eastern Kansas and extreme western Missouri later Monday, knocking down trees and power lines and shattering windows. Hardest hit were Topeka, Kan., Lawrence, Kan., and Kansas City, where there were widespread power outages.

Hailstones the size of golf balls bounced into north-central Kansas, while Alexandria, Neb. was pounded by 3 inches of rain in a 20-minute period.

Portions of southeast Nebraska, northeast Kansas, northwest Missouri and southwest Iowa measured locally heavy rains of between 2 and 3 inches. Partly cloudy skies were the rule over the eastern two-thirds of the nation early today, with considerable fog around Lake Huron and the Maine coast.

Skies were fair over much of the West.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 49 at Minot, N.D., to 101 at Needles, Calif.

Ohio Power Pickets Eyed

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — A hearing was scheduled today in Licking County Common Pleas Court on a suit filed by the Ohio Power Co. to limit picketing at its Newark facilities.

The company has charged that picketing members of two unions have denied entry to salaried employees, office workers and executives.

Ohio Power wants a court order limiting the number of pickets two at any one time.

Nearly 1,900 workers at Newark, Canton, Lima, Steubenville and Zanesville struck Ohio Power Sunday when their contract expired. Another 775 employees at four plants in Ohio and West Virginia walked off the job last month.

The unions involved are the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Utility Workers Union of America.

Median Income Tops $11,000; Blacks Not Sharing In Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Census Bureau says the median family income in America has risen to more than $11,000-a-year for the first time, but that black families are apparently not sharing in the increased affluence.

The bureau said the median family income of America's 54.5 million families climbed 8.1 per cent to $11,120 last year.

But the report said that for black families the median income was only $6,860, compared to a $11,550 median for white families.

A median income means that there are as many families earning above this figure as below it. It is not an average.

The Census Bureau said that black families made little gain in closing the gap of income with whites.

While, over-all, there were one million fewer families earning less than the "poverty level," the bureau said there was an increase in the number of blacks, from 7.4 million to 7.7 million, living in poverty.

The poverty threshold for a non-farm family of four has been established at $4,275.

The poverty figures were taken from a population survey that the Census Bureau conducted last March. About 50,000 families were surveyed.

The report said that the number of white people living in poverty dropped about 9 per cent in 1972—mostly among those 65 and over.

It also said that, while the over-all median income climbed 8.1 per cent, price increases shaved this gain to a net rise of 4.6 per cent.

For men working the year around full-time, the median income was $10,540, while the bureau reported the median income for full-time women workers was only $6,050.

In another report the bureau indicated that households made up of people living alone or with non-relatives are growing nearly three times as fast as family households.

Since 1970, the survey showed, family households increased by 6 per cent, but those in which the head of the household either lived alone or with non-relatives grew by 17 per cent.

Price Freeze To Be Short As Possible Nixon Promises

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Attempting to reassure both businessmen and housewives, President Nixon promises a "short as possible" price freeze and foresees relief against high food prices.

Although complaints of grocery buyers have been claiming the greatest public attention, many businessmen say they are barred from making future plans because of con-

Big Banks Hike Interest Rates

NEW YORK (AP) — Major banks in New York and Chicago, following the lead of Philadelphia's Girard National Bank, posted 1/4 per cent increases to 8 per cent today in their prime lending rates.

It appeared to be the start of the eighth general 1/4 per cent increase this year in the prime, the minimum lending fee charged by banks on loans to large corporate customers.

The actions were announced this morning by New York's Chase Manhattan, the nation's third largest bank, and by First National Bank of Chicago.

Cattle Rustling Rises In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An Ohio agriculture official says he has received more complaints of cattle rustling this year than the past dozen years he has been with the state.

And a wildlife enforcement officer in the state says deer poaching is on the increase.

Dr. Harry Goldstein, a state veterinarian, said cattle rustling "is a direct result of the high cost of cattle. They're worth a lot of money today."

tinuing uncertainty over Phase 4 wage-price controls.

In a radio address broadcast Sunday, Nixon said, "We have been determined from the outset to keep the freeze as short as possible" — an indication he may disclose his new economic game plan before the 60-day price freeze expires on Aug. 13.

Nixon said a temporary freeze on all except raw food prices at the farm level was necessary because it is "vital that we have genuine consultations with a wide range of interested parties before launching Phase 4." He said these consultations have begun.

As for supermarket prices, Nixon said:

"The many measures we have taken to increase the supply of farm commodities — including the release of more than 40 million additional acres for farm production — will eventually bring more farm products to the market and will provide relief against high food prices."

Acknowledging that the freeze has led to inequities, Nixon said it also can create inflationary scarcity.

He said, "We have seen this, for example, in the fact that some broiler producers have had to kill off baby chicks because they could not afford to pay the high feed prices and still sell the broilers at their ceiling prices...."

"For this reason, we have been determined from the outset to keep the freeze as short as possible."

Ohio Meat Packers Predict Cutbacks Because Of Freeze

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio meat packers predict cutbacks and closings this summer if President Nixon's freeze on prices is not softened.

John Richardson, president of Sugarcreek Packing Co., said, "If the Nixon administration doesn't come up with another plan soon, we'll be forced to layoff some workers, even cease operations completely."

Richardson of Washington Court House said his plants in Ohio and Illinois have lost about $30,000 in the last month because of the freeze.

"Our profit situation is very, very bad," he said. "In fact, right now there is no profit."

Other meat packers echoed Richardson's sentiments toward the 60-day freeze on all processed foods. Unprocessed food prices from the farm have not been frozen and that's why the price crunch has developed.

"We just can't go on with these losses," said Ed Wilke, president of the Ohio Packing Co. in Columbus. "If this, thing doesn't bounce up by next week, it's going to mean some layoffs, cutbacks and shutdowns."

Wilke said his company has been losing $4-$5 per hog. The firm processes about 3,000 hogs a day.

Jack Waldock of the Selective Meat Co. has felt the squeeze on prices at his plants in Greenfield and Sandusky. He said he has been paying $40 per hundredweight for hogs, or $2 above the price that would give him a profit.

"There will be layoffs at this rate," he said. The plant employs 350 persons at the two plants.

3 Slightly Hurt In Plane Crash

MECHANICSBURG, Ohio (AP) — Three persons escaped serious injury Monday night when their small private airplane was forced to land in a cornfield east of Mechanicsburg.

The Champaign County Sheriff's office said pilot Matthew Scher, 61, of Rensselaer, N.Y.; his wife, Mary, 49, and Raymond Kemper, 58, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, suffered only minor injuries.

Deputies said the plane was forced to land because of a severe thunderstorm in the area. The plane was enroute from Urbanna to Bellefontaine.

Celina Woman Dies; Struck By Automobile

BILOXI, Miss. (AP) — A Celina, Ohio, woman was killed Monday when struck by a car while crossing U.S. 90.

Officials identified the victim as Sharon Johnson, 30. Two others were injured, including the driver of the car which struck the victim and the victim's 4-year-old niece, officers said.

READY FOR 56-DAY MISSION—Skylab Two astronauts, left to right, Alan R. Bean, commander, Owen K. Garriott, science pilot, and Jack R. Lousma, pilot, talk with newsmen about their upcoming 56-day mission in Skylab. The three are scheduled to blast off on July 27 to linkup with orbiting workshop.

Cosgrave Backs Plan For Ireland

LONDON (AP) — The Irish Republic's prime minister has endorsed Britain's political plans for Northern Ireland and says British troops must remain in the province to prevent civil war.

Prime Minister Liam Cosgrave urged Roman Catholics in Ulster to help make the province's new legislative assembly work and appealed to the province's politicians to promote reconciliation between the Protestant and Catholic communities.

"Northern Ireland's greatest need now is political structures and institutions which will promote reconciliation," Cosgrave told a meeting of right-wing members of the British Conservative party Monday night.

It was Dublin's strongest endorsement of British efforts to bring peace to Northern Ireland. British officials hoped it would encourage Catholics to abandon the Irish Republican Army's guerrillas.

Cosgrave said any withdrawal of British troops from Northern Ireland would lead to civil war between Protestants and Catholics.

He also reassured militant Protestants in Ulster fearful of Irish reunification, saying:

"To press for a united Ireland as a present resolution of the problem would dangerously exacerbate tensions and fears. We have no wish to see the tragedy and division of Northern Ireland re-enacted on a magnified scale in the island as a whole."

Clinton County Gets Invitation To Join Group

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio-Kentucky-Indiana Planning Authority has invited Clinton County, Ohio, to join.

Anthony H. Hesling, executive director, said the invitation was made at the request of Ohio Gov. John Gilligan. Hesling said the governor has designated OKI as the planning agency for southwestern Ohio.

He said state planning districts are being established so that all state services are delivered at the same standard.

OKI member counties are: Hamilton, Butler, Warren and Clermont in Ohio; Boone, Campbell and Kenton in Kentucky; and Dearborn, and Ohio counties in Indiana.

Let's keep America the land of opportunity.

Historically, America has been "the land of opportunity." But "opportunity" is becoming a threatened species.

The opportunity to work and to achieve a better quality of life is threatened by the increasing problem of energy supply.

The energy crisis that seemed so big and vague and far away gets closer every day. Industry especially has become acutely aware of energy shortages. And every business and industry in America depends on an ample supply of energy to provide job opportunities for a work force that increases by over a million every year.

It's ironic that the emphasis on natural gas price regulation and demands for immediate and far-ranging environmental controls on oil delivery dampen the very hope for a cleaner environment, for better housing. Because the solutions to most of our other national problems depend on having sufficient energy to solve them.

Standing still, or keeping things just as they are, may be fine for some people. But for all the rest who strive for the opportunity to better their lives, we must have more energy. More gas, oil, clean-burning coal and electrical generating capacity to keep America the land of opportunity.

Special Car Care Always Pays Off

Cars look better, perform better, too, when service men are painstaking about the details of maintenance. Let us care for your car.

CIRCLEVILLE OIL CO.

Columbia Gas is working to help solve the energy crisis. There is still a lot of natural gas deep underground in America. Columbia is test-drilling to depths of nearly four miles for this clean gas energy. This makes the cost of exploration and discovery more expensive. But, when you consider the alternative of less energy, we think you'll agree the price is not too high.

COLUMBIA GAS
Gas is precious, pure energy... use it wisely.

Reds Defeat Dodgers, 4-2

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Cincinnati's Tony Perez feels he "redeemed" himself Monday night after nine years of frustration against Dodger reliever Jim Brewer when Brewer hung a screwball over the plate.

Perez slammed the pitch over the left field wall for a two-run, game-winning homer in the last of the ninth, giving the Reds a 4-2 victory and the third straight victory in four games over the National League's Western Division leaders.

Cincinnati, now eight games off the pace and in fourth place, opens a three-game series here tonight with the San Francisco Giants.

"Winning three means we're not out of the league," said Reds Manager Sparky Anderson, whose team won the National League Pennant in 1970 and 1972.

"If the Dodgers had won all four games, they would have buried us. But now, we have a shot at them."

Los Angeles could have won all four, but a three-run ninth inning homer by Hal King and a tenth inning run scoring single by Perez Sunday gave Cincinnati Sunday's double header.

Cincinnati avenged themselves of similar treatment by the Dodgers last week when Los Angeles won three of four from the Reds on the West Coast.

Perez hit his home run off Brewer Monday night after Johnny Bench opened the ninth with a single to center and pitcher Tommy Hall was inserted to run for Bench.

"I think I had only one, maybe two hits off Brewer in nine years," said

Owens-Illinois, Bingman's Capture LL Major Contests

Owens-Illinois stopped Coca, Cola, 9-5 and it was Bingman's over Elk's, 8-5, in Circleville Major League action Monday.

It was the hitting of Owens-Illinois that did the trick as they downed Coca-Cola. Shawn Blue paced the hitting with four hits including a triple. Other hits were by Doug Young with a double, Keith Lewis with a double and a single and Chris Mays with a double and a single for a total of nine hits for O-I.

Hits for Coca-Cola were by Teddy Robinson with a double and a single, Doug Rhoads with a single, Jack Holdren with a double, Robbie Sark with a double, James Brown with a double, George Poling coming up with a single and Terry Speakman with a double.

Doug Young was the winning pitcher fanning six and giving up eight hits, Beeman Leasure and Ted Robinson were the losers, allowing nine hits and fanning seven.

It was Bingman's over the Elks in a close major league contest.

The hitting for Bingman's was supplied by David Happeney with a homerun, Rich Elsea with a triple and a double, Larry Pontious with a triple and a double, Mark Ranck with a triple, Brad Willoughby with a single and Jim Wolfe with a single.

Hits for the Elks were by John Harr with a triple and two singles, Scott Sanders with a triple, Jim Teets with a triple and a single, Craig Gifford with a single, Mike Contino with a single and Mark Agin with a single.

Brad Willoughby was the winner, striking out eight, walking four and allowing nine hits. Scott Sanders, John Harr and Craig Gifford shared the loss fanning seven, walking four and allowing nine hits.

Circleville Mfg., PPG, Hummel and Plum Win Tilts

Circleville Manufacturing defeated Block's, 8-6, PPG overran Barnhill's, 18-6, and Hummel and Plum toppled Mac's, 26-6, in Circleville Mosquito League play Monday.

Anthony Thomas paced both teams coming up with a homerun, and two singles for Circleville Mfg. Tommy Tomlinson came up with a homerun and a single, with Curt Spence, Jeff McGowan, Billy Martin, and Greg Bushyeager with two singles apiece while Eric Greenlee and Dave Conner had one single each.

Hits for Block's were by Dave Justus with a triple and a single, John Lutz with a triple, Dave Greeno with a single and a double, with singles by Brian Marshall, John Adams, and Jeff Dolhankey.

Ralph Jones was the winning pitcher striking out seven and allowing 10 hits. PPG was too hot to handle as they downed Barnhill's.

Between the five hit pitching of Jeff Miller and the batting ability of the whole team, PPG had the winning combination. Hits for PPG were by Don Foster with a homerun and four singles, Ricky Salyers with two doubles and two singles, Matt Albright with a double, a single and a double, Keith Kerens, Jeff Miller with two singles and a double, Chris Plescia with four singles and Jim Lewis with a single.

Hits for Barnhill's were by Webb with a double, and singles by Scott Smith, Steve Lewis, Chris Febes, and Mike Williams.

Jeff Miller was the winning pitcher fanning nine, walking six, and allowing five hits. Scott Heeter and Chris Febes struck out a total of 16, walking eight, and giving up 20 hits.

It was the hitting of Hummel and Plum that did Mac's in. Hits for Hummel and Plum were by Billy Uhl with a homerun, a triple, and two

Calton Fires No-Hitter In County Major

Dan Calton hurled a no-hitter and struck out 17 to lead Washington Twp. to a 2-0 win over Laurelville and Stoutsville downed Saltcreek, 9-2, in Tri County Little League Major games Monday.

Calton turned in a superb performance as he scattered five walks and kept Laurelville off balance in the six inning contest. McNichols and Colliton were on the hill for Laurelville. They also came up with a fine effort, allowing three hits, seven walks while fanning nine.

Joe Valentine had a triple while Jeff Seimer and Brett Green each had a single for the winners. Washington tallied single runs in the first and third innings to gain the victory.

Mark Vanover and Mark Morrison combined to pitch a one-hit victory for Stoutsville. They walked five and struck out 15. Hartranft was on the hill for Saltcreek. He gave up 12 hits, four walks and fanned six.

Large Field Set For SD Challenge Stakes Thursday

The successful Challenge Stakes Series at Scioto Downs has been the stepping stone to greatness in harness racing. In the two-year-old trotting division, now in its twelfth year, the list of former winners includes the 1969 Hambletonian winner Lindy's Pride, and last year's Horse of the Year, the great Super Bowl. The list of former winners also includes such outstanding trotting sires, as Columbus' own B. F. Coaltown, Speedy Count, and Clayburne.

Thursday night, twenty promising juvenile trotters will answer the call to the post for a total purse of $20,150. The large entry forced the race into two divisions with each division going for $10,125 and a beautiful silver Challenge Stakes trophy.

The list of twenty entries includes a five horse entry from the Howard Beissinger stable, three from the Bruce Nickells stable, and two from Billy Haughton's stable.

In the second division, scheduled as the ninth race on Thursday's ten-race card, the Beissinger stable entry of Beach Girl, Arrow Hill and Parisian Belle, is the slight early choice. Beach Girl, owned by the Killydonnell Farms of Belleville, Ohio, is the current national Season Champion 2-year-old trotting filly over a five eighths mile track with a mark of 2:04 1-5 at Scioto. Arrow Hill, a bay son of B. F. Coaltown, owned by Dr. John Jackman of Columbus, has won in 2:08 1-5 at Scioto, and Parisian Belle, owned by Garrett Claypool of Chillicothe, Ohio, won in 2:07 4-5 at Scioto.

Tigers Nip Tribe, 4-3

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Detroit Tiger Manager Billy Martin said it was a tough game to win. And Cleveland Indian Manager Ken Aspromonte said it was the same way losing.

Martin used four pitchers to win the game. Tribe Manager Aspromonte stuck with his starter to the finish. The Tigers nipped the Indians 4-3 here Monday night.

"He threw one bad pitch," Aspromonte said. "Every time we make a mistake it counts for a couple of runs. Everytime the other side makes a mistake it either means one run or an out."

The one bad pitch Dick Tidrow (5-9) threw was a two-run home run to Mickey Stanley in the third inning.

In the sixth inning a walk, a fielder's choice, a single and a passed ball netted the Tigers the two runs that helped them win the ball game.

Tiger starter Woodie Fryman was taken out after 4-3 innings and former Indian pitcher Ed Farmer came on to relieve and get the win.

VFW Rips Scioto In Pony Action

It was the hitting of VFW that downed Scioto Building and Loan, 15-3, in Circleville Pony League play Monday.

VFW scored 15 runs on 12 hits. Butch McFarland hit a homerun and a pair of doubles, Bruce Hannigan had a double and a single, Cliff Johnson a double, Bob Snyder a single, Jim McCoy a single, Bloomfield a single, George Snyder a single, Mark Albright a single, and Brian Hannigan with a single for VFW.

Hits for Scioto Building and Loan were by Joe Mogan with a single and Brown with a single.

Jim McCoy was the winning pitcher, fanning nine walking three and giving up two hits. Tim Betts was the loser, striking out nine, walking eight, and allowed 12 hits.

Veteran relief pitcher Orlando Pena was on the roster of the Rochester Red Wings in the International League this spring, but he pitched his way to the Baltimore Oriole roster in exhibition games.

BINGMAN DRUGS

Billy Haughton has the sensational Rising Wind in the second division. This bay son of Tarport Devlin, is co-owned by Hank Thomson, president of the Little Brown Jug, and Haughton has scored impressive stakes wins with this colt.

Haughton and Rising Wind won the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes at The Meadows two weeks ago in 2:07 3-5, and last week won at Pocono Downs in 2:06.

The crack Canadian trotter Jambo Counsel reined by Roger Ponton won in 2:11 2-5 over Richeleau Park's half mile oval, and Bruce Nickells has the 2:08 winner Lincoln's Noble for J. Ray Lynch of Massillon, Ohio.

In the first division, Bruce Nickells has the early choice with the stable entry of Express Pride, a son of the world champion Nevele Pride, owned by Kurt Bertmark of Sweden, and Doubled Yankee, the swift-gaited son of Hickory Pride, owned by the Millionaires Club of Pampano Beach, Florida.

Howard Beissinger has a two horse entry in the first division with Le Amour and King Drexel, and Billy Haughton will challenge with the Hickory Pride colt, Keystone Gabriel.

Sparky Sees Light At Tunnels End

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson, refusing to dismiss 1973 as an off-year, still sees light at the end of the tunnel.

"Something will happen. A lot of teams have won it in the last month," said Anderson as the Reds neared the middle of the season eight games behind.

Mired in fourth place in the Western Division of the National League with a league-low team batting average of .236, the Reds face an uphill struggle. Spotty pitching has given them a 3.60 earned run average.

If 1973 looks like a replay of 1971, when the Reds finished 11 games back after winning the division by 14½ the year before, Anderson is reluctant to admit it.

"This is different than 1971. We never made it to .500 all year. This spring, we were actually leading the league before everything started happening," Anderson said.

Cincinnati took the division-leading Dodgers three out of four in a series ending Monday night. The feat duplicated Los Angeles' sweep of Cincinnati there last weekend.

"There's no real answer. It's just a combination of things. It seems like something different each week," Anderson said.

"We've got to have five or six guys doing it. You put the best people you have on the field and hope they start going," he said.

"If your best people don't do it, it's a long year," he added.

Anderson's major concern has been with outfielders Bobby Tolan and Cesar Geronimo. Tolan, named the league's Comeback Player of the Year last year for hitting .283 and stealing 42 bases, has been the object of boos this year for his lowly .199 batting average. Geronimo is hitting .159.

While the Reds are trying to shake their share of troubles, Anderson remains convinced the Dodgers face hard times.

"The Dodgers will hit some kind of a skid. They could lose 15 in a row. I don't think they will, but anything can happen," he said.

"We're not out of it yet. When you get hot, you win and don't know why. When you're losing, it's usually because you're playing bad baseball," he said.

A doubleheader sweep of the Dodgers Sunday was enough to rekindle the Reds' locker room spirits.

"It just takes some breaks and we'll have to battle," said Jack Billingham, the Reds' most effective pitcher with a 10-5 record.

"I know we can still do it," Billingham said.

LONDON (AP) — Joe Frazier says he's back. And heavyweight champion George Foreman watched the return.

With Foreman in the crowd, Frazier knocked down European champion Joe Bugner in the 10th round and pounded out a 12-round decision Monday night.

Rangers Lose To Chicago, 5-4

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas Manager Whitey Herzog told David Clyde to smile but the Rangers' bullpen made him weep.

Clyde, the 18-year-old whiz who was the first choice in baseball's free agent draft last month, then went to the mound for his second major league appearance. He beat Minnesota last week, allowing one hit and two runs while walking seven and striking out eight in five innings.

This time, he went six innings before a blister forced him to the sidelines. The White Sox managed three runs—two of them unearned thanks to Clyde's own throwing error—on four points over Oakland with a 5-2 triumph over the Kansas City Royals while the A's were losing to the California hits while Clyde walked two and fanned six.

Clyde turned a 4-3 lead over to the bullpen but Bill Melton greeted Don Stanhouse, the fourth Texas pitcher, with a game-tying single in the eighth inning and Ed Herrmann doubled home the winner in the ninth.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Minnesota Twins moved into first place in the West Division by four Angels 4-2, the Boston Red Sox nipped the New York Yankees 1-0, the Milwaukee Brewers shaded the Baltimore Orioles 5-3 and the Detroit Tigers edged the Cleveland Indians 4-3.

Consecutive doubles by Steve Braun and Larry Hise touched off a three-run fourth inning that helped the Twins beat the Royals.

Boston's John Curtis cooled off the Yankees on eight singles and Dwight Evans drilled an opposite-field home run in the fifth inning to give the Red Sox their victory.

The Yankees maintained their four-game lead over Baltimore in the East Division but had their 13-game home winning streak snapped.

George Scott blasted a tiebreaking two-run homer off reliever Grant Jackson with two out in the eighth inning, powering the Brewers past the Orioles.

Pedro Garcia and Darrell Porter hit solo homers for Milwaukee.

SECRETARIAT WINS AGAIN—Jockey Ron Turcotte brings Secretariat under the wire at Arlington Park race track near Chicago to win the $125,000 Arlington Invitational. The Triple Crown winner was an easy winner over the field of three other horses.

Former Inmate Signed By Tigers

DETROIT (AP) — Ron Leflore is one of the newest signees in professional baseball, but the 21-year-old outfielder isn't your ordinary dew-eyed rookie.

He graduated from the one of the game's toughest sandlots—Southern Michigan Prison on Monday and a few hours later was signed by the Detroit Tigers.

"It was beyond my wildest dreams," Leflore said after signing the contract.

For 3½ years, Leflore was an inmate at the Jackson, Mich., prison at Jackson, serving time for robbery.

He discovered baseball in prison. "That's all there was in prison—3½ years of baseball, baseball, baseball," he said. "I played during the summer and really got involved in it."

During that time he became the star of a prison team that played over 40 games a year. He also played football and basketball.

He hit .509 in 1971, followed with a .487 in 1972 and was going along at a .569 clip before he was paroled.

Leflore was recommended to Detroit Manager Billy Martin early in May while the Tiger skipper was speaking at the prison.

"I talked to Mr. Martin and he said to come out to Tiger Stadium for a tryout when I was home on a furlough pass," Leflore recalled.

So, two weeks ago, Leflore showed up at the Detroit ballpark and reminded Martin of his promise.

"He was hitting balls into the upper deck the day we had him at Tiger Stadium," Martin said. "Whether he can hit or not on a regular basis, that's the only question."

That question will be answered soon enough when Leflore reports to Detroit's Midwest League farm club at Clinton, Iowa. He was scheduled to arrive in Clinton today.

There will be parole officers to report to, and the road likely will be a rocky one, but at least one other Tiger has preceded him up that path.

Gates Brown, the Tigers' supreme pinch-hitter, also was discovered while playing in prison.

Reporter Ken Wins Feature At Latonia

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP) — Chief Tom Tom and Scotty S are favored in an eight-horse field in the featured pace mile at Latonia tonight.

Reporter Ken won the feature Monday night, pacing the mile in 2:02.1-5 and paying $6.80, $5.80 and $4. Ellas Time placed, paying $4.60 and $4 and Tokyo was third for $3.80.

Cavs Sign Hornyak, Witte

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Two Ohio State University basketball players were signed by the Cleveland Cavaliers Monday night.

Allan Hornyak, a 6 foot 2 guard, and Luke Witte, a 7 foot center, were added to the National Basketball Association team's roster.

Hornyak, the Cavaliers second round draft choice, posted a 22.8 career scoring average for the Buckeyes and is the top scorer in Ohio high school play with 2,375 points for Bellaire St. John. He was named to the all Big-Ten three consecutive years.

"Hornyak is a proven winner and scorer at both the high school and collegiate levels and has met every challenge that can be thrown at 6 foot 2 guard," said Cavaliers' general manager Bill Fitch.

Witte, a fourth round choice, is the Cavaliers first seven footer. He averaged 16.6 points and 11.2 rebounds in three years at OSU. Witte gives us a bonafide seven footer who faces a challenge against veterans at the toughest position in professional basketball," Fitch said.

Alworth Says He's Quitting

DALLAS (AP) — Marilyn Alworth put it succinctly: "Lance got to the point where he felt foolish...he was just a sore thumb out there."

Lance Alworth—a premier receiver for nine years with the San Diego Chargers and little more than a crack-back blocker for the Dallas Cowboys—retired Monday to devote fulltime to his real estate business in California.

"I guess I could have played for two or three more years but I think it was time to go," said the 32-year-old Alworth, who had the nickname Bambi because of his leaping catches.

Alworth admitted he was "frustrated" with the run-oriented style of the Cowboys.

"I honestly felt like I could help more," said Alworth, who caught only four touchdown passes with Dallas in two years after snaring 81 in nine years at San Diego.

Two-time National League batting champion Tommy Davis is with the Baltimore Orioles.

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Stellar Steed, carrying 120 pounds and Hurricane Greta, 112 pounds, are favored today in the $2,600 allowance race over six furlongs in the featured eighth race at River Downs.

Hole In The Wall won the $2,000 feature by a nose Monday to pay $5, $3.40 and $2.60. Alibi Fella was second, paying $3.20 and $2.80 and the place horse was Doubledarity at $3.40.

State Income Tax Audits Slated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state income tax auditors are coming. They'll get here about September. That's when Ohioans who cheated on their returns can begin to worry.

But the Department of Taxation doesn't think cheating will be that big a problem.

"I don't really think it's going to amount to that much," said Stan Spaulding, spokesman for the department.

Meantime, the department is processing the final 40,000 returns it calls problems — returns on which the department had to go back to the taxpayer for additional information.

State income tax returns as of last Friday totaled 3,550,692, all processed. The department had estimated the total would be 3.6 million, and

Spaulding said, "It looks like we'll hit it right on the nose."

Net collections from those returns come to $369,947,813.56 — a sum that includes final returns, payments of estimated tax ahead of time and withholdings since last Jan. 1. The total covers fiscal 1973 ending June 30.

The total number of returns include 2,270,506 taxpayers who are getting refunds, due within 90 days after the returns are filed.

Another 1,219,939 owed more tax than their returns showed, and another 60,247 asked that their refunds be applied to next year's tax.

Four careless errors have caused most of the trouble — failure to sign the return, failure to attach W-2 forms showing income, failure to include

Social Security number and errors in computation.

"Errors are running between 5 and 8 per cent," said Spaulding.

"We don't have field auditors yet, but we put the returns into the computer and if there are mathematical errors the computer will show it."

"Then, about next September when the federal tapes get here we'll match the two tapes. If, for instance, a taxpayer shows a different income on his federal return than on his state return we'll catch it."

The state income tax division has about 250 permanent employees, and during the peak of the filing season, from February to July, used 250 temporary employees. Most of the latter already have been laid off.

The law setting up the income tax authorized the department to have up to 300 income tax workers. Field auditors probably will number between 30 and the 50 employees remaining of authorized strength, Spaulding said.

Gas Shortage In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Motorists couldn't afford to be casual about the gasoline shortage in the Kansas City metropolitan area. Those who were often wound up out of gas Sunday.

At one suburban service station, cars lined up for 11 hours for the privilege of buying 10 gallons. When the gasoline supply ran out there were still 50 cars in line.

Liquor Clerks Again Threaten Strike Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The local president of a retail liquor clerks union plans to present Ohio officials with the proper membership cards by Friday.

Charles Oliver of the Union of State Government Employees said if the state still refuses to recognize his new union by the end of the week, he will have to take "drastic action."

Oliver said his membership gave him the go-ahead to take the action at a meeting here on Sunday. He refused to discuss what the action would be.

Liquor store clerks in parts of Ohio had threatened to walk off their jobs Saturday to push for state recognition of their union. The job action fizzled after there were unfounded reports of state approval of the union.

Radiation Level Increase Noted

NIIGATA, Japan (AP) — Radiation at least 2,000 times above normal was detected in rain water samples collected near here today, the radiation laboratory at Niigata University said.

The increased radiation was apparently due to the latest Chinese nuclear test, officials said.

However, officials at the Science and Technology Agency in Tokyo said the radioactive contamination will not cause any immediate harm to humans.

Snake Handlers Ignore Court Order

NEWPORT, Tenn. (AP) — Ignoring a court order, several hundred persons converged on a small church in the East Tennessee mountains Sunday to demonstrate their faith in Jesus with fire and serpents.

When the ritual ended, one man had been bitten by a diamond rattler and another had set his arm afire but insisted he was not in pain.

"We had a contentious spirit here today," said the Rev. Liston Pack of the Holiness Church of God in Jesus Name. "Where there's confusion there's contention. Anytime you have a group like that, you have a contentious spirit."

Pack's brother and a North Carolina preacher were killed last April in a similar ritual at the tiny wooden frame church in Newport, about 40 miles east of Knoxville. Each, however, died of strychnine poisoning, which was not in evidence Sunday.

The episode led to a circuit court order banning the congregation's handling of snakes to test its faith. But local authorities as well as several hundred worshippers — which came from at least eight states — ignored the court order Sunday.

At times, the faithful would have as many as six coiling serpents being passed among them while chanting, "In Jesus Name."

The snakes were taken from five boxes — four of which contained rattlers and the fifth an Indian Cobra. "That cobra is just like a red worm if you get annointed with the spirit,"

Pack shouted as the lethal snake was handled without incident.

"That was 100 per cent victory right there," he declared.

A Columbus, Ohio, minister, the Rev. Richard Williams, tested his faith by placing his foot into a box of curling, hissing serpents. He was not bitten as he spoke, "I do that in the name of Jesus."

But Muriel Bass, 35, of Chattanooga, who had tested his faith Saturday with a snake at a prayer meeting, was not as fortunate.

As he handled a rattler, the serpent darted at his forearm leaving a bloody track from deep fang wounds.

"In Jesus' name. Oh my God help him," came the prayerful chanting from Pack's house moments after Bass was taken there in obvious pain but refusing medical attention.

About eight hours later, he was reported resting comfortably in his North Chattanooga home.

"He says he feels pretty good," said Glenn Dukes, a neighbor looking in on Bass. "He hasn't seen a doctor or been to the hospital and says he doesn't plan to."

There was singing, shouting and hand clapping as the preachers and at least 200 faith-testers worked themselves into a trance-like state before handling the snakes.

Ben Laws of Middlesboro, Ky., tested himself with flame. Lighting a match to a cloth soaked in flammable liquid, Laws held his hand in the flames for more than a minute as his

Queen Joins In PEI Celebration

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I. (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II helped Canadians celebrate Prince Edward Island's entry into its second century as a province.

In a Sunday ceremony outside the historic legislature building, the British monarch joined 4,000 Canadians in observing the occasion.

The royal couple is on a 10-day Canadian visit that began last Monday.

flesh darkened.

All the while Pack warned curious onlookers and newsmen to stand back for their own safety, saying only the faithful were not in danger.

State Employees Rap Pay Plans

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two state employe unions are dissatisfied with their share of the new state budget which is more than $40 million less than had been requested.

Wages for union members in the two-year budget that went into effect this week are allocated at $60.1 million.

The Ohio Civil Service Employees Association had asked for a pay package worth $100 million. The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees sponsored a wage boost equaling $112 million.

In Biblical times, the King of Tyre sent timber to Jerusalem to King Solomon in exchange for 20,000 measures of wheat.

Ohio Farmers Need Foreign Markets

Profits in soybeans must include foreign markets but to guarantee these future outlets, farmers must support long-range market development activities, said Ernest Enoch, Circleville, 1972 Ohio soybean yield champion.

"Every nation wants more protein to feed populations. But to satisfy the demand, governments and industry will have to modernize livestock production and food processing. When U. S. farmers support projects designed to assist these nations in using more soybeans instead of other sources, we are expanding markets for ourselves."

Enoch recently returned from the Treflan Champions Tour of soybean markets in France, Hungary, Norway, and Denmark.

He emphasized foreign market development programs directed by the American Soybean Assn., the national organization for soybean farmers, are tailored for each country. All activities are cooperative projects that include processors, feed manufacturers, livestock producers plus homemakers and general consumer groups.

"As only one example, feeding seminars and tests will be designed to help Italian hog producers use most efficient rations. If Italian pork consumption increases only one pound, 268,000 hogs would be needed to meet the demand. That production boost means more than 4.1 million bushels of soybeans would be added to Italian imports."

One bushel of soybeans produces 47 pounds of meal and 11 pounds of oil.

3 Departments Battle Fire At PPG Plant

Firefighters from the Circleville, Pickaway Twp. and Kingston Fire Departments responded to a call from PPG Industries 12:40 p.m. Monday when chemicals exploded at the plant.

One person was injured. He was identified as Hal McConaughy, 401 Cedar Heights Road, who received an ear injury from the explosion.

Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff James Deal assisted in investigation of the cause of the fire.

The fire was on the third floor of the plant. Circleville's aerial ladder was requested by the Pickaway Twp. Volunteer department.

Bike Thieves, Killer Dog On Police Agenda

Ralph Jones, 329 Long St., notified police of the theft of a 10-speed bicycle from his yard Monday.

Betty Grable Dies Of Cancer At 56

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Lung cancer has taken the life of actress Betty Grable, the World War II pin-up girl with the beautiful legs.

Miss Grable died here Monday night at St. John's Hospital. She was 56.

She was treated at the hospital last May and was readmitted last Friday. She also had been hospitalized in May 1972, forcing cancellation of her appearance in "No, No, Nanette" in Melbourne, Australia.

Miss Grable had posed in a white bathing suit, glancing over her shoulder with a coy smile, early in World War II. Almost three million copies of the pin-up picture which showed her shapely legs to their best advantage were distributed, mostly to GIs who displayed them in their barracks or carried them in sea bags or footlockers with their personal belongings.

The photograph was made by 20th Century-Fox studio while she was under contract there.

Through the years, the blonde singing and dancing star maintained her trim measurements: 37-24-35.

Her 42 movies during the 1930s and 1940s grossed more than $100 million. She set a record of 12 consecutive years in the top 10 of boxoffice stars.

The Treasury Department in 1946-47 listed her as the highest-salaried American woman. She earned more than $3 million during her career.

Her movies included "Million Dollar Legs," "How to Marry a Millionaire" and "Follow the Fleet." In 1956, she made her last film, "How to be Very, Very Popular." Later, she toured with different acts and starred in a Las Vegas nightclub production.

Born Dec. 18, 1916, in St. Louis, Mo., she was the daughter of Conn and Lillian Grable. Her father was a stockbroker.

In 1937, she was married to actor Jackie Coogan. She divorced him two years later.

She married band leader Harry James in 1943 after appearing with him in the movie "Springtime in the Rockies." They had two daughters, Vicki and Jessica. James and Miss Grable were divorced in 1965.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Chicago Bank Investment Exec To Join BancOhio

Alan D. Johnson, a Chicago bank investment executive, will return to his native Ohio in July as vice president in the Investment Department of BancOhio Corporation, Philip F. Searle, president and chief executive officer of BancOhio, announced today.

Johnson, a native of Delaware, joins BancOhio on July 16, leaving his executive position as vice president and division manager in the Bond Department of Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago.

Following graduation from Ohio State University with a bachelor of science degree, Mr. Johnson began with the accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company in Toledo, Ohio. Four years later, he left his position as senior accountant to join Pittsburgh National Bank. He received successive promotions to Mr. Johnson's wife Nance (Wacker) is a native of Bexley, Ohio, and is a graduate of Ohio State University. They are the parents of three daughters: Patricia, 14; Lorie, 11; and Lisa, 6.
